

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, There are South Dakotans who make our lives better by choosing to live among us, and Ray Anderson of Winner is one; and,

WHEREAS, Andy has served as a volunteer fireman in South Dakota for thirty-five years, serving his initial twelve years with the Parkston Fire Department before moving to Winner, where he served for the past twenty-three years, and as Chief for the last fifteen years; and,

WHEREAS, In addition to his duties as a father, husband and provider, Andy made time for the people of his community making daily sacrifices for their safety; and,

WHEREAS, After thirty-five years of meetings, training, equipment upkeep, midnight calls and holiday interruptions, Andy Anderson has hung up his slicker and shelved his white hat; and,

WHEREAS, The people of Winner and the larger community of South Dakota owe a debt of gratitude to Andy Anderson for his thirty-five years of self-sacrifice, dedication, expertise and leadership as a volunteer fireman and will honor him at a dinner on February 14; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make public note of the milestones and contributions of South Dakota's outstanding citizens:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 14, 1986, as

RAY "ANDY" ANDERSON DAY

In South Dakota, in gratitude for his many contributions to his fellow man, and I join his wife Georgine and their four children, Joan Davis, David, Linda Klein, and Derry, and the people of Winner and South Dakota in thanking Andy for the high standard of citizenship he has set for us all.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eleventh Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Six
